

Thank you to everyone who auditioned this week for Amélie. We are looking forward to a fun morning of dancing, acting and singing with you this Saturday. The following people should be at Blue Water 9 am-12 pm. Please come dressed to dance with appropriate footwear. We will start the morning dancing to get everyone warmed up and release some nerves. There is a page of dialogue to prepare along with a little French practice (do your best). There are also 4 musical excerpts with sheet music and accompaniment for you to prepare. If you are unable to attend, please submit a video to Katie (katiealine@hotmail) by Saturday at noon. Please make sure to submit your actor information sheet/conflicts to the website by noon on Saturday. Cast list will be posted Saturday afternoon and our first rehearsal will be Monday night 7-9:30 pm. See ya Saturday!
